

Person Specification

Company Name: Dock 10	Job Title: Broadcast Engineer	Department: MCR	Date published: 27/6/2022
	Essential	Desirable
Physical Characteristics	Smart casual. Friendly and approachable.
Attainment and Qualifications	Broadcast Engineering Level 6 or higher.	Arts Award Bronze, Silver or Gold.
General intelligence	Be able to demonstrate theoretical and practical knowledge of broadcast systems including digital audio/video platforms. Considerable experience of diagnosing and fixing technically complex problems across a variety of broadcast and other similar systems.	Be highly skilled with Technology. Be a quick and skilled mathematician.
Previous experience	Experience of working on broadcasts systems in a live TV, Radio or multi-media environment.	Experience as a member or leader of a Tech Crew. Worked with sound, light, AV, camera, smoke and fog equipment.
Temperament and personality	Be able to work under pressure. Be time efficient.	Be able to help less tech inclined staff with technology repeatedly without losing temper.
Hobbies and interests	Be proficient with most widely used technology and softwares (Mac, Windows, WIFI systems, sound, AV and lighting software.	Be interested in/use: 3D Printers, drones, photography and videography equipment.
Personal circumstances		Be able to be flexible with work hours and be able to work their schedule around work.	